INTERNAZIONALE. THE SAN SIRO. THE CAULDRON OF FIRE. Can you hear the cannons?! Since their formation in 1908 Inter have been prodigioso winning Scudettos, Coppa Italias and the Champions League. Vieri, Crespo, Klinsmann and Milito have ripped all comers apart to make history and earn the superfans' worship. Nerazzurri alé! Cross them at your peril.

"Back in the 2006-7 season, the derby, we were 4-1 up in the second half with 20 minutes to go but then the master Materazzi who'd scored the fourth was sent off. Milan came back with two goals, the second from Kaka in stoppage time to make it 4-3. They could have scored again but our goalie made stop after stop to hold the Rossoneri off and seize the day. What a win! Sing "Julio Cesar, La la la!" - Luca, Inter Milan Fan

DAY 1

Come together with your companions at our hand-selected hotel, ready to journey deep into Milan, into football itself, as your Trip Captain gives you the lowdown on the experience to come.

And then it's time to set the scene on an epic, through the city, discovering the iconic Inter Milan sites and all that is football and culture from the Duomo to Sempione Park, hearing the stories and understanding the history.

A little time to chill at the hotel is followed by an early evening trip to the gorgeous neighbourhood of Navigli for some Human First hanging out with a family of car mechanics and super fans at Carrozzeria Inter Milano car garage and fan club.

As night falls and hunger calls we kick off with beers and snacks at a nearby canalside Navigli bar before heading for dinner at iconic Milanese restaurant, Inter-supporting of course, Bar Trattoria Madonnina for Italian food, drink and football conversation.

DAY 2

Saturday begins with traditional coffee and brioche breakfast at an old Milan bar (if you wish) before you head out for a tour of Milan's famous football murals close to the San Siro itself with street artists and mural painters Stefania and Marco Mantovani.

Then it's time to enter the famed San Siro itself for our tour of the magnificent stadium. Get closer to the pitch, the stands, the changing rooms and see the Inter and AC Milan teams' football museum with all the trophies and stories that built this great football city. Of course, you'll get to visit the San Siro store too if you fancy the latest Inter kit.

Lunch is back downtown, panzerotto, gelato, proper Italian coffee and more, and some time to relax at the hotel. Then it's time to experience an Inter Masterclass at the FourFourTwo football pub, you'll get intimate with the history of this great club from the President of one of the most important Inter fan clubs.

The evening sees dinner at El Botinero, an Argentinian cuisine restaurant owned by ex-Inter superstars Zanetti and Cambiasso, decked out with famous football boots and other memorabilia of the beautiful game.

DAY 3

It's matchday, and having enjoyed Milan's nighttime pursuits yesterday the early part of today is dedicated to free time – your Trip Captain can give you recommendations and point you in the right direction for whatever takes your fancy.

You'll regroup in the afternoon for pre-game action to prepare for the match with drinks and snacks – panino alla salamella for example – at Baretto 1957. Then it's time to learn the songs you'll be singing inside with Interclub Tribasei in this Human First fan chant workshop at a chiringuito next to the stadium.

Finally it's game on and game time, as you head into the San Siro for the Inter v Roma. You'll be sitting with the Irriducibili, raising your voices, taking in the glorious atmosphere, the noise and the passion that can only be found in this greatest of stadiums as the blue and blacks play to win.

Post-match, celebrations are hopefully in order and you'll visit a local supporter bar for drinks and sustenance in the form of the finest Italian pizza like the Inter fans do.

DAY 4

It's the morning after a match like no other. And win or lose (we're betting for a win), we'll be on a high. One more cappuccino and croissant, then it's goodbyes to the chic Italian city of Milan, to Inter, and to Looking FC.

Until next time!
