Istanbul is where East meets West, the Bosphorus separating continents, cultures and football rivalries. Istanbul screams timeless history from every narrow street. The city has witnessed civilisations evolve and wither in the quicksand of time over the last 2000 years, but ever since English traders introduced the game of football to harbour workers in the late 19th Century, one thing remains constant: Istanbul's love of football.

- Meet your Trip Captain and new fan friends
- We Kick Off the evening in one of Istanbul's trendiest rooftop bars, meeting our Istanbul Football masterclass.
- We'll grab some food at Beşiktaş Kazan, a favourite of Beşiktaş players and fans alike and just a few hundred metres from their stadium.

DAY 2

- Join us on an exclusive tour of Galatasary's magnificent Nef Stadium. Formerly known as the Türk Telekom Arena, the unofficial but more common name is the "Galatasaray Stadium of Hell". You'll get deeper into Galatasary's story, see the famous stands, and shop and Galatasary museum.
- Home to Fenerbahçe, the Yellow Canaries, since 1908, a visit to the Şükrü Saracoğlu Stadium and museum highlights the history of intense rivalries between the clubs.
- Meet the fans who have fought running battles with each others for decades, understand why the rivalries are so intense and how the results have shaped the city over the years as we head to a fan hangout and learn the chants and songs that are needed to blend into the crowd at tomorrow's match.

DAY 3

- Enjoy a lazy start to the morning before we head off to Beşiktaş stadium and museum tour, before we congregate with the fans for the pre-match build up.
- Expect noise and an intense passion as the pre-match warm up heats up to boiling point just before kick off.
- Post match we'll mix it with the fans as they disperse to various bars and eateries before heading to Nevizade Street in Taksim to experience the best of Istanbul's nightlife.

DAY 4

- Time to head home – which match will we see you at next?
